

NEW BRUNSWICK FITNESS & WELLNESS CENTER

New Brunswick, NJ

Located across the street from the train station in bustling downtown New Brunswick, this project is home to the 62,000 square foot Robert Wood Johnson University Hospital Fitness & Wellness Center, a 50,000 square foot grocery store and a 1,275-space parking structure. The Wellness Center includes a fitness/exercise floor, aquatic center, physical therapy facilities and educational/training component. It provides New Brunswick residents a reduced monthly membership fee as well as a Red Cross “Learn to Swim Program” for New Brunswick Public School students at no cost to the local Board of Education.

Keating Partners provided management of development and construction phase services on behalf of ownership.
